WILSON FIRES REPLY BACK AT COUNCIL

President Breaks Record By Speed With Which He Answers Adriatic Note

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 19—President Wilson began dictating his reply to the Allied Supreme Council's note on the Adriatic situation early today. He hopes to have it transmitted today or tomorrow.
Before noon it was announced the reply was completed and within two hours of the time the President began work on it, the reply was in the hands of Acting Secretary Polk for transmission to the Supreme Council.
The Council's communication was received only yesterday and the speed with which the reply was prepared here was said to constitute something of record.
The President is understood to have answered the Council's contention point by point and to have adhered to the position taken in his note of February 10th. It is pretty well established that the President in that communication told the Allied countries if they settled the Adriatic question without the participation of the American government, the United States might have to decide whether it could become a party to the Versailles treaty and Anglo-French pact.

No Wonder Newberry Won
Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 19—A pool room in Bay City, union labor and grand jury testimony figured in the trial of United States Senator Truman H. Newberry, and 122 others on conspiracy charges in connection with the senatorial primary election in Michigan in 1918. William C. Witmer and C. G. Bohner were the pool players and they testified that Frank O. Gilbert joined them to take a "crisp new one hundred dollar bill" from his pocket and told them it was "Newberry money," given to him in Grand Rapids. Simon Vandermulen, in 1918 president of the Tanners' Union in Grand Haven, told the jury that Claude C. Vanderveen, a defendant from that town, not previously mentioned directly in the testimony, offered him $20 or $25 to "be known as a Newberry man."

Building Boom On Way

The boom, the contractors say, will last five years and will relieve the shortage of dwelling places throughout the country. The convention has been called for the purpose of discussing many problems which have operated to retard building and bring about the present housing shortage and enormous increase of rents.

Mincola, L. I., Feb. 19—Police Justice George A. Little announced today that he had resigned because prohibition prevented his "making a living." Since the dry ban went into effect last month, his revenues from the office dwindled more than 50 per cent, the justice stated, while there had been not one case of intoxication, and but a few minor assault cases to be tried.

SHERMAN GETS BUSY ADVERTISING FORDS

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 19—Henry Ford and all his works were attacked in the Senate again today by Senator Sherman, republican, of Illinois, setting himself up as "one of persons who knew everything instantaneously from birth." Sherman said Ford had "reared a financial moloch," had secured Congressional aid in acquiring and improving land for private purposes and had enlisted the services of the federal government in promoting his political interests in Michigan while his son Edsell, was making good his escape from the military draft.
"And I may say," added Sherman, "I regard the Ford automobile as an international pest." It destroys more useful material than any other sink hole in the world. It is a waste of time and substance."

PRIMARY ELECTION BILL MAY LOSE

Hard Fight In House Over Measure Changing Law—The Legislature

(By Associated Press)
Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 19—By a vote of 23 to 10 the Senate today killed the minimum wage bill offered by Senator R. C. Simmons. The Simmons anti-hand-book bill which had passed the Senate was called out of the committee in the House this morning and given its first reading.
Frankfort, Ky., February 19—Prospects that the Republican majority in the House would succeed in passing the bill repealing the compulsory primary law with an emergency clause faded when Representative Fred C. Van Hoose, of Johnson county, stated that he would not support the measure. As a result the bill was sent back to the Statutes committee.
Representative John T. Murphy, Democrat, failed in his efforts to amend the bill to include Congressmen as the measure provides that the governing authority of any political party in this state shall have the right prescribe the manner and method of nominating its candidates for the offices of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney-General, Auditor of Public Accounts, State Treasurer, Commissioner of Agriculture, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Clerk of the Court of Appeals and United States Senators.
The bill, Representative E. C. Hardin, Democrat, said was wrong in principle. "In every campaign the people were told," he said, "that the Government should be brought closer to them; yet the members of the Legislature come here and try to take it further away from them."
That a convention was better able to express the will of the people than the people themselves, was the opinion expressed by Representative A. M. Wash, Republican, of Mercer.
It would be a crime and a calamity, Representative G. M. Knott, Democrat, said, for the Legislature to repeal the compulsory primary law in order that a handful of politicians could control a convention.
The bill of Representative R. Lee Stewart, to establish the office of State Geologist at an annual salary of $3,000 and appropriating $27,50 for its maintenance, passed 77 to 6.
The House recently passed a bill abolishing the Department of Forestry and Geology, and the Stewart measure reinstates the office of State Geologist.
Representative G. M. Knott's bill, to provide uniform certification of teachers, passed 69 to 16. The examination of the teachers will be held in each county of the state, as at present, but the papers will be graded by the State Board of Education. The certificates issued will entitle teachers to teach in the different counties of the state.
Representative G. T. Stites' measure, to provide for the examination and registration of practitioners, passed 61 to 6.
The bill of Representative J. F. Carr, to establish an open season on fur-bearing animals for November 31 to March 1, passed 55 to 13.
Bills killed by adverse reports follow: To amend Section 4499, of Kentucky Statutes, relating to election of members of Board of Education; to require bids for position of County Treasurer, to levy tax of one cent on coal production for state purposes and half cent for county roads of schools; to require the attendance at school of youths from 7 to 14 years old, and to amend compulsory school attendance.
Senator Swinford introduced a bill providing that where prisoners sentenced to the penitentiary are detained unavoidably in jail such detention shall be deducted from their prison sentences.

MORE SOCIALIST TREASON EXPOSED

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 19—Socialists repudiate the sentiment "My country, right or wrong" and refuse to accept the slogan reclaimed during the war, "stand behind the President." Morris Hillquit, socialist leader, testified today under cross examination at the trial of five Socialist assembly men charged with disloyalty.
"My country, right or wrong," is a "false doctrine of national patriotism," declared the witness. "The true doctrine," he said, "is the ideal of international working class solidarity."

JUDGE RALPH GILBERT ANNOUNCES FOR CONGRESS

Well Known Shelby County Democrat Enters Race For Position Now Held By Republican

They're off.
The first formal announcement is made today for the Democratic congressional nomination in the 8th district. It is that of Hon. Ralph Gilbert, of Shelby county, son of that gallant old democratic warhorse, Hon. George G. Gilbert, who represented this district in the Lower House at Washington a number of years.
Judge Gilbert is in the prime of vigorous manhood. He is a prominent attorney of Shelbyville, and stands high in his community and wherever he is known. He is a captivating public speaker, and endowed with splendid qualifications in other ways for the place he is seeking. He served as County Judge of his county with honor and has taken an active part in democratic affairs for many years.
His home paper, the Shelby News, tells of his formal announcement as follows:

Democrats of Madison county will be interested this morning to learn of the announcement of Judge Ralph Gilbert, of Shelby County, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this, the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky, in the State Primary Election to be held Saturday, August 7, 1920.

Judge Gilbert's candidacy comes as a response to a fast growing demand from Democrats all over the district for a new man to offer for Congress who is fresh from the people—a man who has the ability and the energy to make a vigorous campaign and carry the fight to the Republicans—a man who has never known defeat.
Judge Gilbert is such a man. He is not only a successful lawyer, but he possesses the business qualifications and that indomitable energy so necessary in the making of a Congressman of the first rank. He has only held one public office—that of County Judge of Shelby county—which position he filled for eight years with satisfaction to the entire citizenship.

A forceful speaker and an aggressive campaigner, Judge Gilbert if honored with the Democratic nomination, can be depended upon to redeem the district from Republican control, as it was redeemed before by his father, the late George G. Gilbert, back in 1898, which was the only time it was ever represented by a Republican.

Judge Gilbert expects to meet and speak to the Democrats of Madison county as the campaign gets under way and in the meantime he will appreciate a careful consideration of his candidacy at your hands.

MASON & HANGER USE MEXICANS AT XALAPA

When S. R. (Shady) Hudnail, who conducts a taxicab business in Paris, received an order to be prepared to transport 31 Mexicans through Paris, he thought a Mexican raid on that city was being planned and notified the authorities. However, it appeared that these Mexicans were on a peaceful errand, and had been imported from Texas to work for Mason & Hanger Co. on construction work at Xalapa Farm, the estate of E. F. Simms. They presented a picturesque appearance as they were paraded down the streets of Paris in autos, clad in large straw sombreros, felt boots and overcoats. There were 30 in the party and they were accompanied by an interpreter.

"FRIVOLITIES" RETURNS HERE FRIDAY

An announcement that will please theatre-goers is being made today that the "Frivolities of 1920" which pleased a crowded house Tuesday evening, will return to Richmond for another engagement Friday night. It is said that a complete change of scenery, songs, dances, costumes, and acts will be given, thus making it an entire new performance.
The company, which has its headquarters in Lexington, has two separate and distinct programs, so that there is no duplication of any sort. This will please many who saw the show the other night while many others who learned the house had been sold out before will now have an opportunity of seeing the performance. The show comes back to Richmond because of an open date before jumping to Chicago, where a long run is scheduled, it is said.

NEAR EAST RELIEF CLOSES FEBRUARY 22

We are grateful to the kind hearts that have contributed so promptly and generously to the relief of the starving children in the Near East, and we are waiting on others whose hearts are warm and who intend to help these little ones, but have been so busy they have put it off from day to day. Do it now. Do not put it off another day. With the best of intentions, you have let other opportunities for doing good pass; you by perhaps, because you delayed doing what your heart prompted. Do not add to this list of lost opportunities this—that you failed to help a starving little child, whose appeal you heard but did not heed.

SWOPE SAYS LOWDEN SEEMS TO BE GAINING

But Congressman Was Reticent
Over Republican Presidential Candidates

So far, there seems to be no crystallization of sentiment among Kentucky republicans as to their presidential candidate. Congressman King Swope, who was here the other day from Washington, was very discreet in his talking about presidential possibilities. No one was able to learn whom he favors. He did say that talk at Washington seemed to indicate that Gov. Lowden, of Illinois, had gained considerable strength lately, but that was about the only thing he would commit himself on in regard to presidential politics from a republican standpoint.
Local Republicans are taking much interest in the county mass convention which will be held here Saturday. Delegates will be chosen to the district convention at Danville, March 24, and to the state convention, which follows that, at Louisville, March 30.
Madison has two candidates for honors from their party, Hon. William Wallace, candidate for delegate to the national convention, and Hon. W. O. Mays, candidate for State Central Committee member from the 8th district. The Danville Advocate says that J. L. Butler of that county, is the opponent of Wallace for the delegate's place. It says of him: Local Republicans are backing Mr. J. L. Butler as their candidate for a delegate from the Eighth Congressional district to the National Convention. Hon. William Wallace, of Richmond, is his opponent. It is claimed by the Butler followers that Mr. Butler already has enough votes pledged to guarantee his election. Four years ago he was defeated for this honor by only four votes. He is one of the most active Republicans in this section and is a splendid organizer.

Political Announcements

FOR CONGRESS
We are authorized to announce RALPH GILBERT, of Shelby county, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this, the Eleventh Congressional District of Kentucky, State Primary Election Saturday, August 7, 1920.

Good Roads Plans At Frankfort

Some real good roads legislation seems bound to result from all the talk and planning at Frankfort. Never has the road proposition seemed to have such ardent support in a legislature before. Senator White L. Moss, Pineville, who is a good roads boomer in the upper house, is very enthusiastic over the outlook for the enactment of legislation at this session looking to the systematic construction of public highways in various parts of the State connecting county seats and leaving to the various counties the problem only of building lateral roads to connect with the trunk line pikes. The Bell county Senator has about abandoned the idea of a bond issue for $75,000,000 or any amount, and now says that he believes that the State, with the aid rendered by the Federal Government, will be in a position to pay as it goes in the construction of a modern highway system which he says is imperative. Kentucky is to take her place as a march of progressive Commonwealth. With the passage of the necessary remedial legislation he proposes, Senator Moss believes that about 3,000 miles of intercounty roads can be constructed in the next seven years without radically disturbing the fiscal policy of the state which he maintains would assure the completion of the project to give Kentucky a system of public roads second to none in the country.

The Power Of Money For Good

This is the story of a man whom some hotheads in his community once wanted to hang—Banker William O. Payne, of Bisonville, Spermothilus County, Minnesota. These names, of course, are fictitious, but is likely that plenty of people will identify the man and the town, says Herbert Quick, in The Country Gentleman of February 7th.

Fired by stories of the rush to Iowa in the early days, Payne came to Bisonville when the country was new. The town was a collection of shacks.

Other shacks, widely separated, marked the homesteads of the few pioneers; but his imagination pictured a region of prosperous farms, for anyone could see that it was a natural wheat country. This despite an old-timer's warning that the sparkling blue lake would surely dry up when inevitable years of drought came.

So he opened a bank, and his judgment was verified, for he saw the railroad swamped with incoming goods and settlers and equally burdened with the outgoing stream of wheat. During the next few years he witnessed a marvelous spectacle—the building of a new western county. Then things settled down to humdrum prosperity for the farmers and for the bank.

One day Bruce Evans applied for a loan, through another note of his had already been renewed. He wanted to buy thirty cows, he said; wheat after wheat was ruining the land, the country was going to pot. Payne was astounded. True, a number of farmers had renewed their notes and some foreclosures seemed inevitable, but Bruce's statements were little short of treason in a wheat country. So he refused the loan. However, his banker's sixth sense made him investigate a little.

The two drove into the country. Bruce pointed to the lake, almost dried up; they to a gray cloud on the horizon. Dust! Continued planting to crop had robbed the soil of the humus put there by a century of prairie grass and weeds, persistent cultivation had pulverized it. It was blowing away. Only pasture crops could restore it.

Payne granted Evans his loan. But, though the next year saw a bumper wheat yield, he issued this edict: Every farmer who borrowed money from his bank must go in for livestock and feed crops.

The country rebelled at this automatic dictation; threats of hanging him were made; but Payne had the power—the magic power conferred upon a man when state or nation authorizes him to call himself a bank—so he ruthlessly enforced his decree. All this was a long time ago. Within the past year or two that plenty of people will identify out why National Farm Loan Associations in Spermothilus were lending twice as much per acre as like associations in another county just across the state line. After his inspection this man reported that the loans were good. Everywhere in Spermothilus he saw grass, alfalfa, livestock and poultry, comfortable houses and good barns. And everywhere the story of the farmers was the same: Uncle Billy Payne, now its most popular citizen, had forced prosperity on the county.

INCOME-TAX FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW

"John Doe has owed me $500 for income-tax. Facts You Should Know two years. I have given up hope of payment. Am I allowed to deduct that amount in making out my income-tax return for 1919?"

The answer of the Bureau of Internal Revenue to questions such as these is, "Yes, if you have exhausted every reasonable means for collection, and have charged off the debt in 1919 as worthless."

To be allowed as a deduction, a debt must be charged off within the taxable year in which its worthlessness is discovered. The return must show evidence of the manner in which worthlessness was discovered. Statement should be made that the debtor has been discharged in bankruptcy, or has disappeared leaving no property, or that the ordinary methods of collection have been exhausted. As stated by Income-Tax regulations, "where all the surrounding circumstances indicate that a debt is worthless and uncollectible, and that legal action to enforce payment would in all probability not result in the satisfaction of execution on a judgment, a showing of these facts will be sufficient evidence of the worthlessness of the debt for purposes of deduction."

Payment of an ordinary debt not charged off as worthless is not income to the creditor, since it is mere change in form of capital. Whenever, however, a debt deducted as worthless in some previous year in a later year is recovered or partially recovered, the amount received is taxable income to the creditor for the year in which received.

A frequent claim for deduction is made for loans to relatives and friends.

Before a debt can be deducted its character as a true debt must be proved. Questions such as this reach collectors: "If I advanced a sum to assist a needy friend or relative, having at the time little or no reason to expect that it would be returned, may I claim a deduction to cover such advance?" The answer is "No." Such an advance is regarded as a gift, and is not held to be a bona-fide debt.

A valid debt which is proved to be worthless is not always a proper deduction. Treasury regulations provided that worthless debts arising from unpaid wages, salaries, rentals, and similar items of income will not be allowed as a deduction unless the income such items represent has been included in the creditor's return for the year in which the deduction is sought, or in a previous year.

Where the creditor continues to extend credit to the debtor, a debt may not be claimed as worthless. A debt may not be charged off and deducted in part, but must be wholly and entirely worthless before any part may be deducted, though it may be clearly worth less than the face amount. If a debt is forgiven it can not be claimed as a deduction, because it is then regarded as a gift, which is not an allowable deduction.

Brazil's Big Irrigation Project

(By Associated Press)
Rio De Janeiro, Feb. 19—Preliminary work has begun on the construction of great irrigation canals in the drought-stricken section of northeast Brazil for the relief of which the recent congress appropriated $50,000,000. It is planned to extend railroads in to that section. The work is expected to be completed within five years. It is predicted that this section will then become one of the most fertile and prosperous in all Brazil.

Dreams

Dead leaves that scatter in the wind,
You once were green.

Faint scents that bring old-loves to mind

That might have been.

Years have forgotten you, and yet

You stir between.

Old notes of song, those bygone years

Once heard and knew,

Weak, striving things that move to tear,

As dreams songs do;

You weave a subtle discontent;

Ah! why do you?

Dream loves to creep into the heart,

Who loves you so.

You rest with us awhile, then depart,

Why do you go?

The hours are vain and weary then,

As well you know.

COMPANIONSHIP in a cigarette? Yes, sir! It's in Chesterfields, sure as you live. Chesterfields begin where other cigarettes leave off. They not only please — they "Satisfy!"

Never were finer tobaccos used in any cigarette — silky, aromatic Turkish and the choicest varieties of Domestic leaf, all brought together in a blend so rich, so smooth and so mellow that Chesterfields pile up pleasure with every puff.

No doubt about it—Chesterfields do something that no other cigarette can do—they "satisfy!" And the blend can't be copied.

Flavor sealed in by the extra, moisture-proof wrapper on every package.

"For the purpose of preserving Reelfoot Lake as the chief inland fish and game preserve south of the Great Lakes, and to prevent the practical destruction of the lake by drilling for oil there, the Tennessee State Fish and Game Protective Association today took steps looking to legal action to prevent further work by oil companies at Reelfoot. By an act of the last General Assembly leases were granted certain oil companies there and these companies have already begun work. According to experts there is considerable oil to be found beneath Reelfoot Lake. The turning of this great fish and game haven into an oil field will destroy its real value to the country and it is for the prevention of this that legal procedure will be resorted to by the Fish and Game Association. Reelfoot Lake is known throughout the country as one of the greatest hunting and fishing places in America and sportsmen in every state in the union are expected to rally to prevent its destruction by oil interests."

Mr. Ballard has also introduced a bill providing for bond issues in consolidated school districts. The exact text of these two measures is as follows:

House Bill No. 364

Mr. Ballard introduced the following bill, which was ordered to be printed and referred to the Committee on Circuit Court, viz.:

An act to abolish the office of Trustee of the Jury Fund, which shall become operative on and after the first Monday in January, 1922, and to require clerks of the circuit courts of the several districts in this Commonwealth who shall be elected at the regular November election in 1921, to perform thereafter all the duties required by the Trustee of the Jury Fund under the laws of this Commonwealth, and which duties shall become a part of the duties of the office of circuit clerks.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

That the office of Trustee of the Jury Fund, created by Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky of May 6, 1893, Section 2282, Kentucky Statutes (Carroll's Edition) be and the same is hereby abolished, to take effect on the first Monday in January, 1922, or so soon thereafter as the term of the present incumbents of said office shall expire.

The duties incumbent on the Trustee of the Jury Fund under the laws of this Commonwealth shall thereafter be performed by the clerks of the circuit courts, and said duties on and after said date shall become a part of the duties of the several clerks of the circuit courts of this.

House Bill No. 324

Mr. Ballard introduced the following bill, which was ordered to be printed and referred to the Committee on Education, No. 2, viz.:

An Act authorizing consolidated school districts and county boards of education to issue bonds for the purpose of providing funds for purchasing grounds and constructing buildings for school purposes.

THIS IS DELCO-LIGHT

COMPLETE LIGHT AND POWER PLANT

The things that make Delco-Light the best and most popular plant on the market are:

AIR COOLED
ONE PLACE TO OIL
BALL BEARING
RUNS ON KEROSENE
LARGE STORAGE BATTERY

Indicating meter, that shows just how much current is going into the batteries and how much you are using at all times.

Simplicity and efficiency are also important features.

We have just received a bulletin from the factory stating that the test plant had run 14,000 hours under full load. This is equal to nearly thirty years ordinary farm use—and it is still running good. A good record don't you think?

Ask your neighbor what he thinks about his Delco-Light plant.

There are over fifty users in Madison county and there is one near you. Come in and let us show you the plant. Our store is in the Daily Register building.

Codfish Had Swallowed Watch.
The fishing smack Honeymoonset, Captain Skidmore of Essex, Conn., had, among several interesting marine relics, a lady's gold watch taken from the stomach of a codfish near the reef off Nantucket, Mass. The timepiece is marked on the interior of the case, "Dergee, No. 8722, London, England," with no date. It is in a perfect state of preservation, with the hands marking 12:15 o'clock.—The New England Fish-eries.

INFLUENZA WEAKENS THE BLOOD

Breaks Your Vitality—Leaves You Helpless When Exposed To Other Germs These Are Dangerous Days

If In Doubt About Your Blood Take Pepto-Mangan, Famous Red Blood Builder

If you are just recovering from a fight with the "Flu," it will be weeks before you're really out of danger.

Your blood has exhausted its strength—it is in no condition to fight off other disease germs it may be exposed to. That is why doctors advise staying away from crowds as long as possible.

You can help your blood get back its strength—its stability, to fight off disease—by taking that splendid tonic Pepto-Mangan.

The famous blood builder will supply the iron and other properties your blood lacks and help you regain your old time vigor and enthusiasm.

Get Pepto-Mangan today. It may be had at any drug store in either liquid or tablet form. Make your own choice as to liquid or tablet. They are exactly the same in medicinal value. Take which ever you prefer.

But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for "Gude's" and be sure that the name is on the package.—Adv.

Would You Lose If Your Property Burned Today?

The destruction of that $5,000 home you built a few years ago would lose to you the original cost, plus another $5,000. For it costs $10,000 now to build the $5,000 home of 1914.

Likewise the loss of today of the business property that cost $50,000 before Germany went mad, would be $100,000—probably $100,000 would not replace it.

French Mission Circle
Prayer Service

In celebration of the week of prayer and self-denial the Presbyterian Progressive Campaign asked that Feb. 18th, be set aside as a day of prayer for foreign missions in all women's missionary societies. The French Mission circle of the First Presbyterian church, always on the alert in all progressive church movements eagerly answered the call and an interesting program was planned and conducted by Mrs. B. L. Middleton, Secretary of Transylvania Presbyterian.
All the women of the church were invited to be present. The "welcome" was graciously given by the vice president, Mrs. J. S.
Head, in a few well chosen words and after the business session concluded, the following program was given interspersed with hymns and oratorio records on the Victrola:

Roll Call—Missionary Current Events.

Sketch—Something of the Transylvania Presbyterian—Mrs.
Middleton.

Talk—The Presbyterian Progressive Program—Dr. Telford.
History of the French Mission Circle—Mrs. Stanton Hume.

Talk—The Church Auxiliary—
Mrs. T. S. Burnam.

History of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society—Miss Lucia Burnam.

Response of Day of Prayer for

Life
Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes:
"From the time I entered into womanhood
... I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. ...
Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, ...
I decided to

TAKE

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain."

"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. ... I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer from pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Car-dual. It helped her. We believe it will help you.

Foreign Missions, led by Mrs.
Allen Zaring, Secretary of Foreign Missions of French Mission Circle. The responses were given as prayers and for all the causes in one, the evangelical, medical, educational, industrial, home missions, publications and ministerial relief, in union, and by the following members: Mesdames Keith, Bales, Bosley and Misses Poynitz, Miller, Bright and Shaw.
Prayer—For the young women and men of the church to devote their lives to foreign mission work—Dr. R. L. Telford.

Two prayers were offered for the recovery of Mrs. C. D. Pattie, beloved by all present.

Benediction—Mizpah—"The Lord watch between me and thee while we are absent one from another."

This closed one of the most solemn and beautiful programs the circle has ever given.

Doyle-Adams.

Mr. J. E. Adams, 23, of Bourbon county, and Miss Leatha Doyle, 18, of this county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. J. A. McClintock, on Broadway, Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The home was made beautiful for the occasion, but the affair being very quiet, only a few friends and kinsmen were present. After the ceremony they motored to the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Kit Hardin, on Main street, where a beautiful dinner was served. The happy pair left on the 1:40 train for Bourbon county where they will make their home.

The bride was more than lovely on this, her wedding day; attired in a dark blue tailored suit with hat to match, white gloves and long white veil. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Alfred Doyle, of the Lexington pike, and is noted for her attractions. Mr. Adams is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E.
Adams, now of Bourbon, but formerly of this county. He is a prosperous young farmer and well suited for the fair maiden whom he has wooed and won.
Both have a host of friends who who extend best wishes for their happiness.

Thousands of Women

Owe Their Health To

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—overshadowing indeed is the success of this great medicine. Compared with it, all other medicines for women's ills seem to be experiments. Why is it so successful? Simply because of its sterling worth. For over forty years it has had no equal. Women for two generations have depended upon it with confidence.

Thousands of Their Letters are on our files, which prove these statements to be facts, not mere boasting.

Here Are Two Sample Letters:

Mother and Daughter Helped.

Middleburg, Pa.—"I am glad to state that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did me much good when I was 35 years old. I was run down with female trouble and was not able to do anything, could not walk for a year and could not work. I had treatment from a physician but did not gain. I read in the papers and books about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. The first few bottles gave me relief and I kept on using it until I got better and was able to do my work. The Vegetable Compound also regulated my daughter when she was 15 years old. I can recommend Vegetable Compound as the best medicine I have ever used."—Mrs. W. Yarnall, R. 3, Box 21, Middleburg, Pa.

Fall River, Mass.—"Three years ago I gave birth to a little girl and after she was born I did not pick up well. I despaired for two months and my condition remained the same. One day one of your little books was left at my door and my husband suggested that I try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I started it immediately and I felt better and could eat better after the first bottle, and I continued taking it for some time. Last year I gave birth to a baby boy and had a much easier time as I took the Vegetable Compound for four months before baby came. On getting up I had no pains like I had before, and no dizziness, and in two weeks felt about as well as ever."—Mrs. THOMAS WILKINSON, 363 Columbia Street, Fall River, Mass.

STILL DISCOVERED IN CENTER OF LEXINGTON

They found a moonshine still in operation right in the heart of Lexington Wednesday.

A complete seven-gallon copper still and about ten gallons of raisin-fruit mash were taken when federal officers searched a lunchroom at 148 1-2 North Lime-stone street.

Pete Metrotus, a Greek, the proprietor, was arrested and charged with "having in his possession a still and distilling apparatus and using the same for the unlawful manufacture of alcoholic liquor in violation of Sections 25 and 29, Title 2, Act of October 19, 1919."

The copper still was attached to gas stove and the bucket of an icecream freezer was used as a condenser. The heat caused the contents to form into steam and pass out of the still through the copper worm, where it was condensed. It then flowed out thru a hole in the bottom of the bucket into a container and the officers say it has a "real kick."

The still was hidden under a back porch of the restaurant kitchen. Officers believe the still was operated in Metrotus' bedroom. It is alleged that he had been making raisin brandy. The mash found was about ten days old.

Metrotus said he is innocent and that the still was the property of the former proprietor whose holdings he bought out six or eight weeks ago.

TO SOUTH POLE BY AIR

(By Associated Press)

London, Feb. 19.—The British Expedition to the South pole, which plans to start in July next, will use a "Kangaroo" airplane, formerly a fighting machine, for the final stage of the journey. This plane will be fitted with skis instead of wheels to enable it to land in the snow.

The aircraft will make its actual start from the Great Barrier, and will proceed to the South Pole over the great glacier, and then across known but unnamed mountains.

It is proposed to take a crew of not less than four. In addition to which a sledge containing a tent, shovels, cooking stove and camping equipment and provisions for at least 10 weeks must be carried. These provisions and the sledge necessary in the event of an accident might compel the party to return to the base on foot, will weigh approximately 750 pounds.

A CHANCE TO TURN POOR LOTS INTO GOOD ONES

When street construction begins there will be a large amount of dirt waste. Owners of low lots that need filling should file at once a written request for waste dirt with S. F. Creech, City Engineer, giving exact location of the lot or lots so he can furnish the contractor with a list of lots most convenient to the work where dirt may be wasted. L. P. Evans, Mayor.

FATHER OF MOB VICTIM TELLS HOW HE FEELS

Three Fayette county men, Henderson and Jake Hostetter and Frank Glass, arrested at Frankfort the night the mob came to get Will Lockett, were acquitted in Police Court there on a charge of carrying concealed a deadly weapon. The proof showed that their revolvers were not concealed.

The first expression of sentiment from the family of any man killed in the riot at Lexington came from J. P. Ethrington, father of William Ethrington, one of the first to fall. It follows:

"I desire to thank my friends for their kindness and sympathy shown in the great trial of the death of my son, William H. Ethrington, who was killed Monday during the trouble at the Court House and also thank the police of Lexington for the kindness shown to the boy.

"They proved they did not want to hurt anyone, but wanted to keep the crowd back if possible without hurting anyone. I also wish to thank the young soldiers on the front line that shot their guns in the air and did not wish to hurt anyone. I cannot thank those that shot from the window, where the first shot came from. For every time a shot was fired I could see a man fall, and they were killing men that did not have anything to protect themselves with and did not wish to hurt anyone, but wanted to get that negro who murdered little Geneva Hardman.

"I think that if those men had taken it home to themselves and could have thought, 'If it had been my little daughter that had been mangled up by a brute like that, they certainly could not have killed the boys as they did.'"

WINS CRITICAL PRAISE

"He's there with the real down to the ground, human interest stuff," says Mae Tinee in the Chicago Tribune, while the Chicago Herald and Examiner opines that he has "one of the best faces for screen work" we know of and predicts that "he is going to be a big card." "A real find," says the Charlotte Observer of the famous humorist, while the Daily characterizes him as a "sure-fire hit."

"Almost a Husband" proved a money making foundation for Will Rogers. You can build on it with "Jubilo", the latest Will Rogers-Goldwyn success. Adapted from the Saturday Evening Post story of the same name of Den Ames Williams. "Jubilo" fits the Will Rogers' personality like the results obtained in the picturization of the story place "Jubilo" on the high plane of the excellence achieved by Will Rogers in "Almost a Husband" and make it a fitting successor to the latter.

All the wealth of simple, homely humor and genuine pathos that made for the success of "Almost a Husband" radiates through "Jubilo" and gives to it the rare quality of universal appeal. The story of "Jubilo" is simple and at once humanly appealing and dramatic. Set in a background of rustic simplicity, it tells a direct story of plain folks, revealing in rapid succession of events both dramatic and humorous, the elemental emotions that govern the lives of provincial characters.

Will Rogers is presented in role of a kind and lovable wanderer from Vagabondia—a hobo—a bit of human driftwood gliding slowly and aimlessly down the stream of life; a figure both amusing and pathetic. Work, water and worry he abhors as things to be avoided as one would avoid a pestilence; and the evading of them is to him a fine art at which he is past-master. At the opera house tonight.
